The American Bakers Association's (ABA) member companies are working hard to produce and distribute baked goods and are looking to hire thousands of permanent and temporary employees immediately. These wholesale baking companies are dedicated to providing workers with a safe and healthy workplace, while they work to ensure the food supply of the country.

WHY ARE THERE INCREASED EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES IN THE BAKING SECTOR DURING THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC?

The U.S. government has declared the food and agriculture sector as a critical infrastructure during the COVID-19 outbreak, as it provides essential services that underpin American society. As such, baking industry employees are expected to keep a normal work schedule to meet the needs of American families. During this critical time, many baking industry companies are looking for additional help to assist with the increased production.

HOW MANY JOBS ARE OUT THERE?

ABA member companies have over 700 temporary positions and over 2,600 permanent positions available across the U.S.

HOW CAN I GET A JOB IN THE BAKING INDUSTRY?

Baking companies, equipment manufacturers, ingredient suppliers, and milling companies are located nationwide, looking for talented people to work in a variety of positions. Search thousands of available jobs at BakingWorks.org to find the right opportunity for you.

WHAT KINDS OF JOBS DOES THE BAKING INDUSTRY OFFER?

Baking companies are looking to employ a variety of both hourly and salaried positions across the country including mechanics, drivers, production operators, production supervisors, quality assurance technicians, sales professionals, administration and finance professionals, and general labor.